North Carolina State Board of Certified Public Accountant Examiners

1101 Oberlin Rd., Ste. 104 • PO Box 12827 • Raleigh, NC 27605 • 919-733-4222 • www.nccpaboard.gov • No. 08-2011

Does Serving as a Campaign Treasurer Require You to Undergo Peer Review?

With local, state, and national candidate filing periods well underway, you, as a CPA, may find yourself asked to serve as a campaign treasurer for a political campaign.

Depending on the nature of the campaign-local, state, or national-your duties may require you to complete certain campaign finance reporting forms. For a national campaign, this would require the completion of the Federal FEC Form 3 and for a state campaign, completion of the North Carolina forms CRO-1100 and CR-1100.

The Board asked James W. Brackens, Jr., CPA, Vice President of Ethics and Practice Quality for the AICPA, "Would the performance of these duties require you to undergo a peer review based solely on the preparation and signing of such documents?"

Brackens directed our attention to the following interpretation issued by the AICPA Accounting and Review Services Committee (AR Section 9080):

Applicability of SSARS No. 19 When Performing Controllorship or Other Management Services

.21 Question – If the accountant is in the practice of public accounting and provides an entity with controllorship or other management services that entail the submission of financial statements, is the accountant required to follow the requirements of section 80?

.22 Interpretation – If the accountant is in the practice of public accounting as defined by the AICPA's Code of Conduct (ET sec. 92 par. .25) and is not a stockholder, partner, director, officer, or employee of the entity, the accountant is required to follow the performance and communication requirements of section 80, including any requirement to disclose a lack of independence.

.23 If the accountant is in the practice of public accounting and is also a stockholder, partner, director, officer, or employee of the entity, the accountant may either (a) comply with the requirements of section 80), or (b) communicate, preferably in writing, the accountant's relationship to the entity (for example, stockholder, partner, director, officer, or employee). The following is an example of the type of communication that may be used by the accountant:

The accompanying balance sheet of Company X as of December 31, 20XX, and the related statements of income and cash flows for the year then ended have been prepared by [name of accountant], CPA. I have prepared such financial statements in my capacity [describe capacity, for example, as a director] of Company X.

.24 If an accountant is not in the practice of public accounting, the issuance of a report under SSARS would be inappropriate; however, the previously mentioned communication may be used. [Issue Date: July 2002, Revised December 2010 (formerly Interpretation No. 21 to section 100).]

Brackens also stated that, "In addition to the suggested communication provided above, a communication of one's relationship to an entity may be achieved by other means, such as by a signature line on a standardized form that indicates the capacity of the signer (such as campaign treasurer)."

Furthermore, "if the CPA/campaign treasurer prepared and signed the report, which clearly indicates his/her capacity as campaign treasurer, and did not issue a separate compilation report, then SSARS No. 19 would not apply."

"Accordingly, the preparation and signing of such campaign reports would not subject the CPA to a peer review under AICPA Standards." This is applicable whether the CPA is in public practice or employed in industry.

3. Prior to reissuance of his certificate, Respondent is required to provide the Board with evidence of completion of the eight (8) hour accountancy law course as offered by the NCACPA in a group-study format, but such hours will not count toward the forty (40) hour CPE requirement for reissuance of his certificate.

4. Respondent shall remit a one thousand dollar ($1,000.00) civil penalty to the Board within sixty (60) days of the date of the approval of this Consent Order by the Board.

5. Upon reissuance of his certificate, Respondent may not perform any audit or review of financial statements until Respondent registers to participate in a peer review program and Respondent must obtain pre-issuance review of any audits, reviews, compilation, and agreed upon procedures which Respondent participates in or performs until such time as Respondent receives a pass report in a peer review on each level of the aforementioned services. The pre-issuance reviewer shall be approved by the Board prior to performing said reviews.
