George W. Rohe, CPA, Appointed to State Board of CPA Examiners

Governor Pat McCrory has appointed George W. Rohe, CPA, of Charlotte, as a member of the State Board of Certified Public Accountant (CPA) Examiners. Rohe, whose term will expire June 30, 2016, was appointed to the Board February 24, 2014, and sworn the Oath of Office April 22, 2014.

Rohe, who was licensed as a North Carolina CPA in 1977, began his accounting career with the "Big Eight" accounting firm Lybrand, Ross Bros., and Montgomery, which later became PricewaterhouseCoopers, LLP. Since retiring from his position as a tax partner with PricewaterhouseCoopers, LLP, Rohe has been employed full-time as a consultant for a small group of closely-held businesses and their ownership families.

Rohe is a member of the NCACPA, the AICPA, the Florida Bar Association, the American Bar Association, and the Charlotte Estate Planning Council. He is a past president of the Charlotte Chapter of the NCACPA and a former member of the Board of Directors of the NCACPA. He also is a past president of the Charlotte chapter of the Institute of Management Accountants (IMA).

In addition to his involvement in professional organizations, Rohe has served on the board of directors or in officer positions of numerous community organizations, including Goodwill Industries of the Southern Piedmont; Levine Museum of the New South; United Way of the Central Piedmont; the Historic Rosedale Foundation; the Sigma Chi Alumni Association; the Charlotte City Club; the Rotary Club of Charlotte; Pineville United Methodist Church; and Providence United Methodist Church.

Established by Chapter 93 of the North Carolina General Statutes, the State Board of CPA Examiners is an occupational licensing board that grants certificates of qualification as CPAs to those individuals who meet the statutory requirements. The Board also adopts and enforces the rules of professional ethics and conduct to be observed by CPAs in North Carolina. The Board, an independent State agency, is composed of seven members appointed by the Governor for three-year terms. Five members must be holders of valid and unrevoked NC CPA certificates as issued by the Board in accordance with the NC General Statutes. The remaining two members, who cannot be CPAs, represent the interests of the public-at-large.
