SUCCESION—THERE IS STILL TIME

The following article was written by Ben Hamrick, CPA, a member of the NCACPA’s Succession Planning Task Force, and is printed as a courtesy to the NC Association of CPAs (NCACPA). With the author’s permission, the article has been edited for clarity and the space allotted.

Many would say that CPA firm succession is one of the most significant issues facing the profession and has been for some time.

In a recent article by Marc Rosenberg, “Baby Boomers Retiring in Droves,” the succession issue was number three on the list of 14 challenges facing the CPA profession.

This was followed by number seven on the list: “Firms continue to suck at succession planning.”

Rosenberg goes on to say that only 20-30% of first-generation firms make it to the second. Clearly, the issue is still with us.

Let’s take a look at the numbers.

As of October 5, 2021, there are 8,586 licensed North Carolina CPAs in public practice, according to information provided to the NCACPA by the Board.

The table below shows CPAs in public practice by age group.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Age</th>
<th>Number</th>
<th>%</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>20-29</td>
<td>1,026</td>
<td>12%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>30-39</td>
<td>1,933</td>
<td>23%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>40-49</td>
<td>1,459</td>
<td>17%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>50-59</td>
<td>1,779</td>
<td>21%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>60-69</td>
<td>1,566</td>
<td>18%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>70-79</td>
<td>698</td>
<td>8%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>80+</td>
<td>125</td>
<td>1%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>8,586</td>
<td>100%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

As you can see from the table, 48% of licensed CPAs in public practice are 50 years and older, and 27% are age 60 and older.

The numbers alone would suggest there will be a lot of transition in the near future.

Several of us on NCACPA’s Succession Planning Task Force have received calls from firms desperately looking to sell or merge their practice because of an unexpected illness or retirement of a key partner.

It seems these calls have increased over the past year.

SCOTT C. COYLE, #34816 | BURLINGTON, NC

THIS CAUSE, coming before the North Carolina State Board of CPA Examiners (“Board”) at its offices at 1101 Oberlin Road, Raleigh, Wake County, North Carolina, with a quorum present. Pursuant to N.C. Gen. Stat. §150B-41, the Board and Respondent stipulate to the following:

1. Scott C. Coyle, CPA, (hereinafter “Respondent”) is the holder of North Carolina certificate number 34816 as a Certified Public Accountant.
2. The Board received a complaint against the Respondent from one of his clients (hereinafter “Complainant”). The complaint asserts that the Respondent was unresponsive to the Complainant’s attempts to communicate with him.
3. The Complainant hired an attorney to assist her with the matter. The Respondent did not communicate with the Complainant’s attorney.
4. The Complainant filed a complaint with the Board. The Respondent did not respond to the Board staff’s initial investigatory letter or subsequent emails. The staff was forced to block the Respondent’s certificate renewal, in order to finally receive a response.
5. The Respondent contends that, at the time that the Complainant was trying to contact him, he had closed his office location due to taking a position with another firm, and mail from that office was being forwarded to his home. He asserts that he provided the Complainant with access to his portal in order to obtain her documents.
6. The Respondent did not respond to staff inquiries requesting proof that he had given the Complainant access to his portal.
7. The Board has received similar complaints against the Respondent in the past and the Respondent had been warned that continued failure to timely communicate with his clients could result in disciplinary action.
8. The Respondent wishes to resolve this matter by consent and agrees that the Board staff and counsel may discuss this Consent Order with the Board ex parte, whether or not the Board accepts this Consent Order as written. The Respondent understands and agrees that this Consent Order is subject to review and approval by the Board and is not effective until approved by the Board at a duly constituted Board Meeting.

BASED UPON THE FOREGOING, the Board makes the following Conclusions of Law:

1. The Respondent is subject to the provisions of Chapter 93 of the North Carolina General Statutes and Title 21, Chapter 08 of the North Carolina Administrative Code, including the Rules of Professional Ethics and Conduct promulgated and adopted therein by the Board.
2. The Respondent’s actions as set out above constitute violations of 21 NCAC 08N .0212(2) and .0206.
3. Per N.C. Gen. Stat. §93-12(9), and also by virtue of the Respondent’s consent to this order, the Respondent is subject to the discipline set forth below.

BASED ON THE FOREGOING and in lieu of further proceedings, the Board and the Respondent agree to the following Order:

1. The Certified Public Accountant certificate issued to Respondent Scott C. Coyle, CPA, is hereby revoked for one year.

Approved by the Board on July 26, 2021.

Succession continued from page 1

It can be challenging to think about planning for succession when we are dealing with constantly changing tax laws, technology, federal programs, attracting and retaining talent, cybersecurity, diversity and inclusion, and the list goes on. Of course, most recently, a virus has impacted most everything we do and how we do it.

As CPAs, we impact many people and businesses, including our team members and their families, the employees of our clients and their families, and many community organizations that we each support.

This makes succession planning very important to more than just the retiring owners. Planning for succession is not just for the 60+ age group, but all age groups.

In the best case, succession is baked into each firm’s hiring practices earlier on and throughout an employee’s career.

Planning for the new generation of leadership takes time and effort but is well worth the investment. Time and energy invested in planning for succession creates great opportunities for the younger CPAs.

Succession planning is not easy and requires continuous attention as things can change overnight.

Many firms have built succession into the fabric of their firms. For others, now is a good time to get started.

The NCACPA Succession Planning Task Force has been working collaboratively with the Board on this very topic. There are excellent tools and resources available to assist you; please visit www.ncacpa.org/succession-planning-tools-resources.

Lynch continued from page 1

Lynch is a past member of the North Carolina Bar Association Estate Planning and Fiduciary Law Section Council and the past chair of its Ethics Committee.

She is a past Chair of the Estate Planning and Probate Law Specialty Committee, North Carolina State Bar Board of Legal Specialization.

In 2017, Lynch received the Joseph Branch Professionalism Award from the Wake County Bar Association, and in 2012, she received the North Carolina State Bar’s John B. McMillan Distinguished Service Award.

The North Carolina State Bar Board of Legal Specialization awarded Lynch the Sarah H. Davis Excellence Award in 2006.
