June 30 is the deadline for renewing your individual CPA certificate for the 2022-2023 license year.

The renewal link is in the "How Do I" box on the homepage of the Board’s website, nccpaboard.gov. An overview of the renewal process was published in the April issue of the Activity Review. Detailed instructions for completing the renewal are included in the online renewal.

When completing the renewal, make sure you check the appropriate box related to your CPE.

Failure to accurately report your CPE or not completing the proper CPE may result in a forfeited certificate and a $1000.00 civil penalty through a Consent Order.

NCGS 143-765 mandates the Board to deny your certificate renewal if you do not answer the questions related to employee misclassification.

If you don’t complete the certificate renewal or request inactive status before July 1, you may receive a Letter of Demand from the Board.

Failing to submit the renewal form and fee or request inactive status within 30 days of receiving the Letter of Demand will result in the Board automatically forfeiting your NC CPA certificate.

Although forfeiture is not a disciplinary action, it does prevent you from using the CPA title.

Send your CPA certificate renewal questions to Buck Winslow, the Board’s Licensing Manager, at buckw@nccpaboard.gov.
Disciplinary Actions

Pursuant to NCGS 93-12(9), “any disciplinary action taken [by the Board] shall be in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 150B of the General Statutes. The clear proceeds of any civil penalty assessed under this section shall be remitted to the Civil Penalty and Forfeiture Fund in accordance with G.S. 115C-457.2.” NCGS 115C-457.1(b) states, “The Fund shall be administered by the Office of State Budget and Management. The Fund and all interest accruing to the Fund shall be faithfully used exclusively for maintaining free public schools.”

JAMES GREGORY HERRING JR., #27039 | CHARLOTTE, NC

THIS CAUSE, coming before the North Carolina State Board of CPA Examiners (“Board”) at its offices at 1101 Oberlin Road, Raleigh, Wake County, North Carolina, with a quorum present. Pursuant to N.C. Gen. Stat. §150B-41, the Board and the Respondent stipulate to the following:

1. James G. Herring, Jr., CPA (hereinafter “Respondent”) is the holder of North Carolina certificate number 27039 as a Certified Public Accountant.

2. The Respondent is employed by Ernst & Young LLP (hereinafter “Firm”), a registered certified public accounting firm in North Carolina.

3. The Firm self-disclosed that it had been subjected to disciplinary action by the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”). The SEC Order found that the Firm had received and used competitive intelligence and confidential information in order to successfully bid on the audit for a publicly-traded company in the State of North Carolina.

4. The SEC Order made specific findings that the Respondent lacked independence, that Respondent’s actions caused the Firm to violate Rule 2-02(b)(1) or Regulation S-X and caused the issuer to violate the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and found that the Respondent engaged in improper professional conduct in violation of the SEC’s Rules of Practice.

5. The SEC imposed a three-year suspension of the Respondent’s privilege to appear or practice before the SEC as an accountant and a $50,000.00 civil penalty for his actions.

6. The Respondent wishes to resolve this matter by consent and agrees that the Board staff and counsel may discuss this Consent Order with the Board ex parte, whether or not the Board accepts this Consent Order as written. The Respondent understands and agrees that this Consent Order is subject to review and approval by the Board and is not effective until approved by the Board at a duly constituted Board Meeting.

BASED UPON THE FOREGOING, the Board makes the following Conclusions of Law:

1. The Respondent is subject to the provisions of Chapter 93 of the North Carolina General Statutes and Title 21, Chapter 08 of the North Carolina Administrative Code, including the Rules of Professional Ethics and Conduct promulgated and adopted therein by the Board.

2. The Board asserts that the disciplinary action taken by the SEC constitutes a violation of Rule 21 NCAC 08N .0204. Respondent neither admits nor denies a violation of that rule, but has consented to the entry of this Consent Order.

3. Per N.C. Gen. Stat. §93-12(9), and also by virtue of the Respondent’s consent to this order, the Respondent is subject to the discipline set forth below.

BASED ON THE FOREGOING and in lieu of further proceedings, the Board and the Respondent agree to the following Order:

1. The Certified Public Accountant certificate issued to the Respondent, James G. Herring, Jr., is revoked for a period of three years, however, the revocation is stayed as long as the Respondent does not violate any of the regulations set forth above during the three-year period.

2. The Respondent must remit a $10,000 civil monetary penalty with this signed Consent Order.

Approved by the Board on April 21, 2022.
THIS CAUSE, coming before the North Carolina State Board of CPA Examiners ("Board") at its offices at 1101 Oberlin Road, Raleigh, Wake County, North Carolina, with a quorum present. Pursuant to N.C. Gen. Stat. §150B-41, the Board and the Respondent stipulate to the following:

1. James A. Young, Jr. (hereinafter "Respondent"), was the holder of North Carolina certificate number 39204 as a Certified Public Accountant.

2. The Respondent was employed by Ernst & Young LLP (hereinafter "Firm"), a registered certified public accounting firm in North Carolina.

3. The Firm self-disclosed that it had been subjected to disciplinary action by the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"). The SEC Order found that the Firm had received and used competitive intelligence and confidential information in order to successfully bid on the audit for a publicly-traded company in the State of North Carolina.

4. 5. The SEC imposed a two-year suspension of the Respondent’s privilege to appear or practice before the SEC as an accountant and a $25,000.00 civil penalty for his actions.

6. The Respondent wishes to resolve this matter by consent and agrees that the Board staff and counsel may discuss this Consent Order with the Board ex parte, whether or not the Board accepts this Consent Order as written. The Respondent understands and agrees that this Consent Order is subject to review and approval by the Board and is not effective until approved by the Board at a duly constituted Board Meeting.

BASED UPON THE FOREGOING, the Board makes the following Conclusions of Law:

1. The Respondent is subject to the provisions of Chapter 93 of the North Carolina General Statutes and Title 21, Chapter 08 of the North Carolina Administrative Code, including the Rules of Professional Ethics and Conduct promulgated and adopted therein by the Board.

3. Per N.C. Gen. Stat. §93-12(9), and also by virtue of the Respondent’s consent to this order, the Respondent is subject to the discipline set forth below.

BASED ON THE FOREGOING and in lieu of further proceedings, the Board and the Respondent agree to the following Order:

1. The Certified Public Accountant certificate issued to the Respondent, James A. Young, Jr., was placed on forfeit status for a failure to renew on August 11, 2021. As such, the Respondent’s ability to reactivate his CPA certificate is hereby revoked for a period of two years following the Board’s approval of this Consent Order.

2. The Respondent must return his certificate to the Board within fifteen (15) days of his receipt of the Board’s notification of its approval of this Consent Order.

3. The Respondent shall not offer or render services as a CPA or otherwise trade upon or use the CPA title in this state either through CPA mobility provisions or substantial equivalency practice privileges or in any other manner, nor shall the Respondent claim or attempt to use any practice privileges in any other state based upon his forfeited North Carolina certificate.

Approved by the Board on April 21, 2022.

In Memoriam

Thomas Hayes Woollen

Thomas Hayes Woollen, a past public member of the NC State Board of CPA Examiners, died May 6, 2022. He was 87.

Governor James G. Martin appointed Woollen to the Board in 1986 and appointed him to a second term in 1989.

During his tenure on the Board, Woollen served as Chair of the Professional Education and Applications Committee.
The Board is pleased to announce that two North Carolina Uniform CPA Exam candidates are winners of the AICPA’s 2021 Elijah Watt Sells Award.

The Award program was established in 1923 to recognize outstanding performance on the CPA Exam.

Tyler Brynn Black, a graduate of Wake Forest University with a Bachelor of Arts in Spanish and a Master of Accountancy from St. Joseph’s College of Maine, is employed with Alan F. Burke, CPA, PA, in Salisbury, NC.

Hutton Alexander Johnston, a graduate of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration and Master of Accounting, is employed with Wells Fargo Securities in Charlotte, NC.

More than 72,000 individuals sat for the CPA Exam in 2021, with 57 candidates meeting the criteria to receive the Elijah Watt Sells Award.

To qualify for the award, CPA candidates must obtain a cumulative average score above 95.50 across all four sections of the CPA Exam, pass all four sections on their first attempt, and completed testing in 2021.

ALLAN C. LEIGH JR., #088005 (NY) | BROOKLYN, NY

THIS CAUSE, coming before the North Carolina State Board of CPA Examiners ("Board") at its offices at 1101 Oberlin Road, Raleigh, Wake County, North Carolina, with a quorum present. Pursuant to N.C. Gen. Stat. §150B-41, the Board and the Respondent stipulate to the following:

1. Allan C. Leigh, Jr., CPA (hereinafter “Respondent”), is the holder of New York certificate number 088005 as a Certified Public Accountant.

2. The Board received information from the United States Department of Education’s Office of Student Aid that they were unable to verify the license status of the firm and auditor of a college. The audit was performed by the Respondent, working out of a non-CPA firm.

3. The Respondent does not have a principal place of business in North Carolina and was utilizing a practice privilege as allowed by the mobility legislation found at N.C. Gen. Stat. §93-10.

4. After opening a disciplinary case, the Board staff requested and reviewed the workpapers of the audit that the Respondent performed for the college.

5. The staff identified numerous deficiencies in the workpapers and the audit.

6. The Respondent wishes to resolve this matter by consent and agrees that the Board staff and counsel may discuss this Consent Order with the Board ex parte, whether or not the Board accepts this Consent Order as written. The Respondent understands and agrees that this Consent Order is subject to review and approval by the Board and is not effective until approved by the Board at a duly constituted Board Meeting.

BASED UPON THE FOREGOING, the Board makes the following Conclusions of Law:

1. The Respondent is subject to the provisions of Chapter 93 of the North Carolina General Statutes and Title 21, Chapter 08 of the North Carolina Administrative Code, including the Rules of Professional Ethics and Conduct promulgated and adopted therein by the Board.

2. By virtue of the facts set forth above, the Respondent violated 21 NCAC 08N.0302, which requires CPAs to issue audits only through CPA firms that have undergone peer review.

3. The Respondent also violated 21 NCAC 08N.0403 (auditing standards) by virtue of the deficiencies noted in the audit workpapers.

4. Per N.C. Gen. Stat. §93-12(9), and also by virtue of the Respondent’s consent to this order, the Respondent is subject to the discipline set forth below.

BASED ON THE FOREGOING and in lieu of further proceedings, the Board and the Respondent agree to the following Order:

1. The practice privilege of the Respondent is hereby revoked.

2. The Respondent shall not offer or render services as a CPA or otherwise trade upon or use the CPA title in this state either through CPA mobility provisions or substantial equivalency practice privileges or in any other manner.

Approved by the Board on March 16, 2022.
